CCA (www.africacncl.org) is America's leading private sector proponent of trade and investment between the United States and Africa. Since its inception, WAIBL has been the catalyst for nearly $100 million in U.S.-West African business transactions. WAIBL is funded by the U.S. Agency for International Development through the West Africa Regional Program.

ETC (www.csgeast.org/international.asp) seeks to strengthen state and regional economic competitiveness in the global marketplace by sharing trade development information, jointly promoting regional products, and collectively advocating for federal trade promotion programs and policies which will benefit the region. The ETC is supported by annual appropriations from its 11 member jurisdictions.
