

National Procurement Assistance

Doing business with the federal government can be a good way to expand your business, but it can be confusing. Fortunately you don't have to do it alone! SBA can help you find the assistance you need through several resources listed below.

Resources

Procurement Technical Assistance Centers (PTACs)

- Helps businesses determine if they are ready for government contracting, register in the proper databases, find and bid on contracts, and more.

DoD Prime Contractor Directory

- Identifies large prime contractors that are required to establish subcontracting plans with goals.

GSA Subcontracting Directory

- Published for small business concerns seeking subcontracting opportunities with General Services Administration (GSA) prime contractors.
- Lists large business prime contractors who, by law, are required to establish plans and goals for subcontracting with small business firms.

USASpending

- Includes details about subcontract awards to connect subcontract awards to prime contractors.
- Identifies prime contractors that are awarding subcontracts in your local area.

SubNet

- A list of large business prime contractors doing business with the Federal Government.

SBA Tools and Resources

SBA's SubNet

SubNet is the Small Business Administration's (SBA) Subcontracting Network System for federal government subcontracting opportunities. It is a free database for small businesses seeking opportunities and large businesses desiring to post small business subcontracting opportunities (e.g., solicitations, sources sought, outreach events).

- 1. Identify concrete, tangible opportunities.
- 2. Identify key business markets.
- 3. One Stop Shop to advertise.

Large primes and large subcontractors that post small business subcontracting opportunities in SubNet are showing a good faith effort to obtain small business subcontractors. There is no registration or fees required to search for opportunities, so visit <https://eweb.sba.gov> today.

Additional Tools
