SBA takes part in Beckley Small Business Resource Summit

CLARKSBURG, W.Va. – The U.S. Small Business Administration’s West Virginia District Office, West Virginia Small Business Development Center and the West Virginia Women’s Business Center will be among many small business service providers participating in a Small Business Resource Summit on Monday, Nov. 5 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Tamarack Conference Center in Beckley, W.Va. The Summit, sponsored by the West Virginia Small and Micro Business Alliance for Economic Inclusion, is free and open to the public.

SBA representatives from the Charleston Branch Office will be available to meet with attendees and answer questions concerning financing of small and micro businesses as well as the SBA’s many programs and services.

For further information about the Summit, go to <http://www.wvhub.org/news/free-2012-small-business-resource-summit-0> or contact John Meeks at 919-787-8727 ext. 4915 (email:jmeeks@fdic.gov).

The mission of the SBA is to aid, counsel, assist and promote the interests of small businesses by providing financial, and advocating on their behalf within the government. All SBA programs are extended to the public on a non-discriminatory basis.
