Working On Your Behalf

Every day, the U.S. Small Business Administration and its nationwide network of partners help millions of potential and current small business owners start, grow and succeed.

Resources and programs targeting small businesses provide an advantage necessary to help small businesses effectively compete in the marketplace and strengthen the overall U.S. economy.

SBA offers help in the following areas:

- Starting a Business
- Financing a Business
- Growing a Business
- Opportunities in Contracting
- Recovering From Disaster
- A Voice for Small Business in Government

HUBZone Program

Workshop Schedule—San Antonio District Office

The HUBZone (Historically Underutilized Business Zone) Program can be an essential instrument for eligible small business men and women who are interested in selling their products or services to the various federal government procuring agencies throughout the United States. SBA Business Opportunity Specialists will outline the eligibility criteria and certification process at this free one hour seminar. The Federal government sets aside contract opportunities to small businesses who are certified through SBA and located in designated underutilized areas. Program details and formal online application can be accessed at: www.sba.gov/hubzone. Guidance can also be provided by SBA's resource partner, the UTSA-SBDC Contracting Resource Center. Visit www.txsbdc.org/sbdc-contracting-resource-center/ and phone (210) 458-2458 for an appointment.
