Every year since 1963, the President has proclaimed National Small Business Week to recognize the contributions of small businesses to America's economy.

During Small Business Week, generally held in May 2013, the SBA will honor exceptional small business owners and champions in Washington D.C.

In West Virginia, we will celebrate the achievements of our state award winners with our annual Small Business Week Celebration in May of 2013.

In addition, the nomination package must address each of the following criteria, including the table points with a narrative describing how the company meets or exceeds each of the elements.

9. Volunteer time and energy to improve the conditions for home-based businesses.
10. Engage in entrepreneurial training, policy development efforts, or financial or business planning specifically tailored for home-based businesses.
11. Demonstrated interest in home-based businesses by an owner or former owner.
12. Measurable accomplishments in advancing home-based businesses, such as adoption of public policy or expansion of a program.

Note: The judges will score the nomination packages in this category by carefully reviewing elements 9 through 12.

Contact Rick Haney at 304-623-7449 (email: richard.haney@sba.gov) with questions. All nominations must be postmarked or hand delivered no later than Friday, Dec. 7, 2012.
