

SBA SETTLEMENT SHEET FORM 1050

OMB Control No: 3245-0200
Expiration Date: 10/31/2025

Purpose: The purpose of this form is to document and verify that loan proceeds have been disbursed in accordance with the Authorization and to document that the Borrower's contribution has been injected into the business prior to the Lender disbursing any loan proceeds.

Requirement: Lenders must use this form for the first disbursements on all standard 7(a) loans.

This form is to be completed by the Lender and signed by the Lender and the Borrower at the time of the initial loan disbursement. If there are subsequent disbursements, Lender must document each disbursement and attach the documentation to the original SBA Form 1050 (a new SBA Form 1050 is not required for each subsequent disbursement). The Lender must retain a copy of the signed form in its loan file. For all disbursements, the Lender must also retain documentation that is acceptable to SBA (such as joint payee checks, cancelled checks, paid receipts or invoices, wire transfer account records, etc.) and evidence of compliance with the Use of Proceeds section of the Authorization.

The Lender must submit the completed form and all supporting documentation to SBA upon request, or, in the event of a loan default, with the Lender's request for guaranty purchase. Providing this information is required to comply with Loan Program Requirements (as defined in 13 CFR 120.10); failure to provide it when required may impair the Lender's ability to collect on the SBA loan guaranty.

If additional space is required to complete the form or provide additional details, please attach a separate sheet.

No assurances are provided with this form specifically. However, the "Statements Required by Law and Executive Order" in the attached addendum," is provided with each 7(a) loan application to advise lenders and loan applicants that, among other things, SBA will protect the sensitive and/or confidential loan related information against disclosure to the extent permitted by law. Such statutory protection may fall under the "Freedom of Information Act" (5 U.S.C. 552), "Privacy Act" (5 U.S.C. 552a), and the "Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978" (12 U.S.C. 3401). Personally identifiable information collected is maintained in accordance with SBA's Privacy Act System of Records, System 21- Loan System, which can be accessed at <https://www.govinfo.gov/content/pkg/PAI-2017-SBA/xml/PAI-2017-SBA.xml#sba21>. SBA has several safeguards to protect this information. Access and use of electronic records is limited to Agency officials acting in their official capacities, with a need-to-know, and to SBA Resource Partners. Access and use by SBA Resource Partners will generally be via the Internet, with restricted password(s)/passcode(s). SBA Resource Partners, their successors, or assigns, will have access only to those individual records that were collected by that particular partner. Information contained in files will be available only to potential asset sale purchasers who have executed a confidentiality agreement. Only SBA employees in the performance of their official duties, who are granted access to the records by Agency issuance of User ID and/or passcode, may amend or review the records. Access and use of paper records is limited to SBA officials acting in their official capacities, with a need-to-know. SBA Resource Partners, their successors, or assigns, will have access only to the individual records that were collected by that particular partner. Information contained in loan files will be available only to potential asset sale purchasers who have executed a confidentiality agreement. Only those SBA employees in the performance of their official duties may review or amend the records. Obligation to respond is required to obtain or retain benefits, the principal purpose(s) for which the information will be used, is during lender oversight activities, or, in the event of a default on the loan, at the time the Lender requests guaranty purchase, the agency reviews the form to determine that the conditions, as certified were met. These measures help SBA ensure that loan proceeds are being used for eligible purposes, and that the cost of the program to the government and to future borrowers (who pay guaranty fees to SBA based on projected costs of the program) as a result of defaults net of recoveries is kept at a reasonable level. The routine uses which may be made of the information is for application for benefits, program evaluation, general purpose statistics, program planning or management, regulatory or compliance. Failure to obtain the requested information and necessary certifications in connection with the use of loan proceeds and closing of the loan may adversely impact the Agency's ability to recover from the lender and/or borrower in the event of fraud in connection with the loan. Further, a lender's practice of disbursing funds for undocumented, and possibly ineligible purposes, and to borrowers that had experienced an adverse change between approval and closing, could go undetected and lead to increased program costs. The increased cost would impact both the government and future borrowers, whose guaranty fees to SBA are calculated on projected costs of the program.
