“Meet the Lenders”

Business borrower – lender matchmaking event

- Meet one-on-one with banks/credit unions/service providers
- Learn about borrowing and lending for small business growth
- Find out about various loan options

Who should attend?

This event is a great opportunity for any business owner seeking financing to meet with representatives from area banks, lender relations specialists from SBA, development agencies, micro lenders and grant funders to learn about their funding options.

Entrepreneurs will have the opportunity to meet up to 12 lenders and/or service providers for 12 minutes each. Attendees may want to come prepared with their elevator speech and business plan. You can get help with your elevator speech or business plan by visiting SCORE (www.score.org), the Massachusetts Small Business Development Center (www.msfdc.org), or the Center for Women and Enterprise (www.cweboston.org).
