

INTRODUCING...

Money Smart for Small Business

FREE training curriculum from FDIC and SBA

A FDIC Webinar

Tuesday, July 23, 2013

10:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. (Central)

Join the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) for a one-hour webinar designed to provide small business technical providers with information about Money Smart for Small Business (MSSB). FDIC and the U.S. Small Business Administration jointly developed this financial education resource to help stakeholders deliver essential financial management training to new or operating small business owners. The webinar will explain how to access the free high quality financial education resource and highlight the benefits of joining the FDIC's nationwide Training Alliance network for organizations using MSSB.

Webinar Topics

- MSSB Curriculum Content
- How to Use MSSB
- Accessing Free Copies of MSSB
- MSSB Training Alliance

Who Should Attend

Financial institutions, small business development centers (SBDCs), micro lenders, SCORE members, city/county economic development offices, faith-based organizations and other community based groups serving small businesses.

Online Registration Required by Friday, July 19, 2013

Register at http://www.fdic.gov/news/conferences/other_events/2013-07-23-Webinar.html.

There is no charge to participate.

For additional information, please contact Community Affairs Assistant Danyale Lucado at (312) 382-6949 or chicommunityaffairs@fdic.gov.