TO:     Heads of Agencies

FROM:    Major L. Clark, III Acting Chief Counsel for Advocacy, U.S. Small Business Administration

DATE:     March 30, 2017

SUBJECT: Implementation of Executive Orders 13771, "Reducing Regulation and Controlling Regulatory Costs," and 13777, "Enforcing the Regulatory Reform Agenda"

As required by Executive Order (EO) 13272, I am writing to advise you of the activities of the Office of Advocacy (Advocacy) related to recent Executive Orders on the reduction of regulatory burdens and offer additional assistance related to these new policies. Advocacy strongly endorses the principles and policies of these Executive Orders and urges that they be implemented consistent with the Regulatory Flexibility Act (RFA) in order to reduce the regulatory burdens and the disproportionate impacts of regulations on small entities.

Congress established the Office of Advocacy under Pub. L. No. 94-305 to advocate the views of small entities before federal agencies and Congress. Because Advocacy is an independent office within the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA), the views expressed by Advocacy do not necessarily reflect the position of the Administration or the SBA. The RFA, as amended by the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996 (SBREFA), gives small entities (businesses, organizations, and local governments) a voice in the federal rulemaking process and requires agencies to consider the impacts of their rulemakings on small entities. Under EO 13272, Advocacy provides training to agencies on the RFA.

Over the coming months, Advocacy will be making available additional assistance and tools to implement Executive Orders 13771 and 13777 and engaging in outreach to small entities to identify opportunities to reduce burdens on small entities. Advocacy will also be seeking additional opportunities to train policy officials and regulatory staff on the RFA and its importance in the implementation of these EOs.

1 Executive Order 13272, signed August 13, 2002 (67 Fed. Reg. 53,461 (August 16, 2002). Section 2(a) requires the Chief Counsel for Advocacy to "notify agency heads from time to time of the requirements of the [Regulatory Flexibility] Act."

To initiate Advocacy assistance to your agency in the implementation of EO 13771, EO 13777, and the Regulatory Flexibility Act, please provide me with the names of the officials you have designated as the Regulatory Policy Officer, named under EO 12866, section 6(a)(2), and the Regulatory Reform Officer, named under EO 13777, section 2(a).

This information should be sent to Charles Maresca, Director of Interagency Affairs, SBA Office of Advocacy, Charles.Maresca@sba.gov, as it is available. Please also contact me or Mr. Maresca if you have any questions about this memorandum or your agency’s compliance with the RFA.

Thank you for your consideration of these requests. I look forward to a productive effort to reduce the regulatory burdens on small entities.
