SBA’s Working Capital Loans are Different from Other SBA Loans

- Funds come directly from the U.S. Treasury
- Apply directly to SBA’s Disaster Assistance Program at: DisasterLoan.sba.gov
- There is no cost to apply
- There is no obligation to take the loan, if offered
- The maximum unsecured loan amount is $25,000

Applicants can have an existing SBA Disaster Loan and still qualify for an EIDL for this disaster, but the loans cannot be consolidated.
What businesses are eligible to apply?

- Small businesses
- Small agricultural cooperatives
- Small aquaculture businesses
- Most private non-profit organizations

This includes:

- Directly affected by the disaster
- Businesses that offer services directly related to the businesses in the declaration
- Other businesses indirectly related to the industry that is likely to be harmed by losses in their community
  (Example: Manufacturer of widgets may be eligible as well as the wholesaler and retailer of the product.)
What is the criteria for a loan approval?

- Credit History - acceptable to SBA
- Repayment - ability to repay the SBA loan
- Eligibility
  - Located (physical presence) within the declared disaster area
  - Have suffered, or are likely to suffer, substantial economic injury as a result of the disaster
  - Must be an independently owned and operated business
  - Do not have credit available elsewhere
  - The size of the applicant alone (without affiliates) must not exceed the size standard for the industry in which the applicant is primarily engaged
  - The size of the applicant combined with its affiliates must not exceed the size standard designated for either the primary industry of the applicant alone or the primary industry of the applicant and its affiliates, whichever is higher.

• Eligibility based on the size, type of business and financial resources

How can I use the loan funds?

• Fixed debts (rent, etc.)
• Payroll
• Accounts payable
• Some bills that could have been paid had the disaster not occurred.
What kinds of small businesses can apply?

Including (but not limited to)
- Restaurants
- Retailers
- Hotels
- Manufacturers
- Owners of rental property
- Wholesalers
- Others (i.e. too many to list all of them here)

What other criteria is involved?

- Must have a physical presence in the declared disaster area
- Physical presence = “tangible and significant”
- P.O. Box does not qualify
Economic Injury Disaster Loan Terms

What are the collateral requirements?

• Economic Injury Disaster Loans over $25,000 require collateral

• SBA takes real estate as collateral when it is available

• SBA will not decline a loan for lack of collateral, but requires borrowers to pledge what is available
Basic Filing Requirements

- SBA Loan Application (SBA Form 5 or 5C)
- Tax Information Authorization (IRS Form 4506T)
- Complete copies of the most recent Federal Income Tax Return
- Schedule of Liabilities (SBA Form 2202)
- Personal Financial Statement (SBA Form 413)

Although a paper application and forms are acceptable, filing electronically is easier, faster, and more accurate.
Additional Filing Requirements

Other information that may be requested:

• Complete copy, including all schedules, of the most recent Federal income tax return for principals, general partners or managing member, and affiliates (see filing requirements for more information)

• If the most recent Federal Income Tax Return has not been filed, a year-end profit-and-loss statement and balance sheet for that tax year

• A current year-to-date profit-and-loss statement

• Additional Filing Requirements (SBA Form 1368) providing monthly sales figures. This is especially important for Economic Injury Disaster Loans.
Ineligible Entities

What are some of the businesses that are ineligible for an Economic Injury Disaster Loan?

• Agricultural Enterprises: If the primary activity of the business (including its affiliates) is as defined in Section 18(b)(1) of the Small Business Act, neither the business nor its affiliates are eligible for EIDL assistance

• Religious Organizations

• Charitable Organizations

• Gambling Concerns (Ex: Concerns that derive more than 1/3 of their annual gross revenue from legal gambling activities)

• Casinos & Racetracks (Ex: Businesses whose purpose for being is gambling (e.g., casinos, racetracks, poker parlors, etc.) are not eligible for EIDL assistance regardless of 1/3 criteria above

• Complete list ineligible businesses
Ineligible Uses of Loan

- Dividends and bonuses

- Disbursements to owners, etc. except when directly related to performance of services

Advice

• We STRONGLY suggest that once you are registered, you download and/or print out the application, familiarize yourself with what is needed, do it manually and then submit online.

WE WANT YOU TO HAVE A COMPLETE APPLICATION UP FRONT.

• If the application is incomplete, it will be set aside. You will be notified what is missing, but YOU FALL BACK IN THE QUEUE.

• If more funds are needed, applicants can submit supporting documents and a request for an increase. If less funds are needed, applicants can request a reduction in the loan amount.
Advice (Cont.)

• If the loan request is denied, the applicant will be given up to six months in which to provide new information and submit a written request for reconsideration.

• Do not second guess the process and ignore the “credit elsewhere” statement.

• For Phase I processing, only losses of six months or less are eligible for the more expedited type of loan processing. Make sure you provide a specific loan amount on the application as an additional note.

• Make sure you request a specific loan amount; input this into the comment section.

When in doubt, apply!

Final Advice

• If you are having trouble with getting in, i.e. it is not recognizing the county and/or state:
  • Make sure you entered your type of business AND clicked on EIDL only under the “Are you applying for” section.
  • Otherwise, please give it a time and try again. The Office of Disaster Assistance is moving as fast as it can, but each state and individual county needs to be entered.

• Take your time and make sure the application is complete. We are here to assist where we can, but given the district’s limited staffing, we can’t run through an entire application with every (state/district) small business owner. We are working with the state and our partners to provide as much in-depth help as we can.
