

Introduction to Government Contracting

Are you interested in expanding your market share, increasing revenues, and growing your business? Have you considered selling to the government? If not, let the MN Procurement Technical Assistance Center (PTAC) and SBA show you why you should! Learn about registering as a vendor, certifications, and how to find contract opportunities. We will also discuss small business procurement programs, small business goals and set-asides as well as basic contracting terms and steps to get started.
