2016 SBA District Small Business Person of the Year

Any individual who owns and operates or who bears principal responsibility for operating a small business may be nominated. Partners who jointly own and operate a small business may be nominated as a “team,” so long as the number of individuals in the team nomination does not exceed four. A nominee for Small Business Person of the Year must own or operate a business defined as “small” for its primary industry under the applicable SBA size standards. Individuals who have received the Small Business Person Award at the State level within the past five years are not eligible. Nominees must also be residents of the United States or its territories and will be subject to background checks. Small businesses owned and operated by nominees must comply with federal civil rights laws. While receipt of SBA assistance is not required, it is preferred. Consult the SBA district office if you have questions.

What are the evaluation/selection criteria for the Small Business Person of the Year award?

In evaluating the nomination packages, the judges will look at the following criteria:

1. Staying power — a substantiated history as an established business; including:
  - a. Number of years in business; minimum three years.
  - b. Sustained growth including, but not limited to expansion, addition of territories, growth in square footage occupied.
2. Growth in number of employees — a benchmark to judge the impact on the job market.
  - a. Sustained over a minimum of three years.
  - b. Increase over the three years must be in excess of growth in Gross National Product.
3. Increase in sales net profit and net worth — for calendar years 2012, 2013 and 2014.
4. Innovativeness of product or service offered — an illustration of the creativity and imagination of the nominee:
  - a. Specific description of uniqueness of product or service.
  - b. Explanation of how product or service fits a niche not being adequately addressed by the competition.
5. Response to adversity — examples of problems faced in the nominee’s business and the methods used to solve them, including
  - a. Specific description of financial, physical, legal or other crisis.
  - b. Substantiation of the threat to the continuity of the business.
  - c. Defined actions taken by the nominee to resolve the crisis.
6. Contributions to community-oriented projects — evidence of the use of personal time and resources, including:
  - a. Listing of specific contributions of money, time, or resources to charitable causes.
  - b. Membership in councils, boards and clubs providing support and services to the community.
7. If applicable, a description of the products exported and markets served.

What information must the nomination package contain?

Nominations must contain the information required below:

Incomplete nomination packages will not be considered. All evaluation/selection criteria must be specifically addressed.

- 1) A completed background form (SBA Form 3300, Award Nominee Background Form) which is available through SBA district offices and the online nominations portal (<http://awards.sba.gov>). For “team” nominations, a background form is required for each team member;
- 2) A completed nomination form (SBA Form 3301, Small Business Person of the Year) which is available through SBA district offices and the online nominations portal (<http://awards.sba.gov>);
- 3) An original 8” x 10” or 5” x 7” photo of the nominee or a digital photo – at least 300 dpi; photocopies are not acceptable. For “team” nominations, a photo of each nominee or a group photo is acceptable;
- 4) Additional supporting documentation deemed significant by the nominator, including news clips, letters of recommendation and other evidence of the appropriateness of the nomination (supporting documentation must not exceed 10 pages). Videos will not be considered.

2015 Small Business Exporter of the Year

---

SBA will make Small Business Exporter of the Year awards to eligible small businesses at the State level (from each of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands and Guam) and the National level. In those states served by more than one SBA district office, each district office will select a district level winner and the State winner will be selected at the regional level. The National Small Business Exporter of the Year will be selected from the regional level winners.

Who is eligible to be nominated for this award?

Any individual who owns and operates or who bears principal responsibility for operating a small business that is engaged in exporting may be nominated. Partners who jointly own and operate a small business may be nominated as a “team,” so long as the number of individuals in the team nomination does not exceed four. A nominee for Small Business Exporter of the Year must own or operate a business defined as “small” for its primary industry under the applicable SBA size standards. Individuals who have received the Small Business Person Award or Exporter Award at the State level within the past five years are not eligible. Elected officials are not eligible. Nominees must also be residents of the United States or its territories. Nominees will be subject to background checks. Small businesses owned and operated by nominees must comply with federal civil rights laws. While receipt of SBA assistance is not required, it is preferred. Consult your nearest SBA district office if you have questions.

Where are the nominations to be sent?

Nominations must be submitted in one of two ways:

1. Nominations may be submitted to the U.S. Small Business Administration district office in the state or territory where the nominee is located; or
2. Nominations may be submitted via the online nominations portal on <http://awards.sba.gov>.

What are the evaluation/selection criteria for the Exporter of the Year award?

In evaluating the nomination packages for the Exporter of the Year award, the judges will look at the following criteria:

1. Increased sales, profits and/or growth of employment because of exporting.
2. Creative overseas marketing strategies.
3. Effective solutions to export-related problems, including trade financing, payment, and currency issues; market-entry and logistical challenges; cultural differences, etc.
4. Demonstrated encouragement of other small businesses to export.
5. Volunteer assistance to other small businesses entering the export market.
6. Cooperation with other businesses in the creation of export trading companies and/or introduction of unique trading relationships, products or services.

What information must the nomination package contain?

Nominations must contain the information required below:

Incomplete nomination packages will not be considered. All evaluation/selection criteria must be specifically addressed.

- 1) A completed background form (SBA Form 3300, Award Nominee Background Form) which is available through SBA district offices and the online nominations portal (<http://awards.sba.gov>.) For “team” nominations, a background form is required for each team member;
- 2) A completed nomination form (SBA Form 3302, Small Business Exporter of the Year) which is available through SBA district offices and the online nominations portal (<http://awards.sba.gov>);
- 3) An original 8” x 10” or 5” x 7” photo of the nominee or a digital photo – at least 300 dpi; photocopies are not acceptable. For “team” nominations, a photo of each nominee or a group photo is acceptable;

What are the selection procedures for this award?

Following determination of eligibility by the appropriate SBA Disaster Field Operations Center, nomination packages will be forwarded to the Office of Communications and Public Liaison, Washington, D.C., for review and recommendation of national award winners. Winners will be selected by the SBA Administrator, based on the recommendations of a panel of judges comprised of federal employees.

What are the evaluation/selection criteria for this award?

1. Resiliency — The business successfully resumed its operations within the same geographic area.
2. Extent of damage — The business suffered at least 40 percent physical damage.
3. Staying Power — The business was able to maintain at least 90 percent of its pre-disaster employment level or has plans to rehire employees, attaining 90 percent of its pre-disaster employment level.
4. Contribution to the local community (e.g., the only supermarket in town, a major source of employment in the city, etc.).
5. Speed of recovery.
6. Initiative and innovation displayed during recovery.
7. Efforts made by the business to protect the property from future disaster losses.

Phoenix Award for Outstanding Contributions to Disaster Recovery, Public Official
Phoenix Award for Outstanding Contributions to Disaster Recovery, Volunteer

Who is eligible to be nominated for this award?

Any private-citizen volunteer or public official may be nominated for his/her outstanding contribution to a community’s recovery following a natural disaster which occurred during fiscal years 2014 or 2015. For purposes of this award, a public official is a person who has been elected to carry out some portion of a government’s powers, whether Federal, state, or local, or a person who has been appointed to a position at the Federal, state, or local level of government. In some cities, mayors or city council members are appointed, not elected, yet those non-elected officials are also eligible. For purposes of this award, a private citizen volunteer is an individual who uses available resources to support the recovery efforts of the community. Corporate citizens are not eligible for this award.

Public officials and volunteers who suffered a physical disaster in their community during fiscal years 2013 or 2014 are eligible for nomination.

Who may submit nominations for this award?

Any individual or organization dedicated to the support of the small business community in the United States, including, but not limited to, trade and professional associations and business organizations, may submit nominations for this award. Individuals may not be nominated for more than one SBW 2016 award category. Individuals may self-nominate for this award. SBA employees may help to solicit nominations, but they cannot submit nominations on behalf of the nominee.

SBA Lender Awards

Jody C. Raskind Lender of the Year

The Jody C. Raskind Lender of the Year Award is presented to a mission-focused lender (Mission Lender) that has demonstrated extraordinary commitment to the creation, growth and expansion of small businesses in underserved markets with a demonstrable impact on the communities it serves.

Who is eligible to be nominated for this award?

To qualify, the mission lender must be a participant in two or more of the following economic development loan or grant programs: SBA's Microloan Program, Community Advantage Program, CDC/504 Loan Program, Intermediary Lending Pilot Program (ILPP,) and/or PRIME. Alternatively, the Mission Lender could be a participant in one of these programs and be a Department of Treasury-certified Community Development Financial Institutions (CDFI).

Additionally, the Mission Lender must have made a minimum of 10 loans in either, or some combination of, the SBA Microloan, ILPP or Community Advantage Loan Programs during the fiscal year. Having met the minimum criteria, the award will be based upon the number of loans made and the relative impact the particular Mission Lender has had on the communities it serves based on the judgment of the reviewing panel.

All lenders that have met the minimum requirements for consideration for the award will be asked to submit a model exemplary transaction and/or interaction with a small business(s) they have served during the fiscal year which they feel best epitomizes their organization's mission, goals and community served.

Who may submit nominations for this award?

Any individual or organization dedicated to the support of the small business community in the United States, including, but not limited to, trade and professional associations and business organizations, may submit nominations for the Jody C. Raskind Lender of the Year award. Lending institutions may self-nominate. SBA employees may help to solicit nominations, but they cannot submit nominations on behalf of the nominee.

Where are the nominations to be sent?

What is the deadline for nominations?

All nominations for Jody C. Raskind Lender of the Year Award must be emailed no later than 3:00 pm ET, January 11, 2016.

What information must the nomination package contain?

All lenders that have met the minimum requirements for consideration for the award will be asked to submit a model exemplary transaction or interaction with a small business(s) they have served during the Fiscal Year which they feel best epitomizes their organization's mission, goals and impact on its respective community.

- 1) A completed background form (SBA Form 3300, Award Nominee Background Form) which is available through SBA district offices and online nominations portal.
- 2) A completed nomination form (SBA Form 3313, Jody C. Raskind Lender of the Year) which is available through SBA district offices and the online nominations portal;

- 3) An original 8" x 10" or 5" x 7" photo of the nominated Lender or a digital photo – at least 300 dpi is required; photocopies are not acceptable.
- 4) No more than 3 photographs or charts deemed significant by the nominator as evidence of the appropriateness of the nomination.

What are the evaluation/selection criteria for this award?

- Portfolio performance and OCRM Risk Rating;
- Satisfactory SBA compliance record; and
- Scoring/recommendation by SBA's Underserved Market Coordinating Committee
- Number of loans approved/made
- The Mission Lender's demonstrated commitment to the creation, growth and expansion of small businesses in underserved markets and their impact on the communities they serve based on the submitted narrative via the nomination form

What are the selection procedures for this award?

SBA's Underserved Market Coordinating Committee will utilize the descriptions provided by the Mission Lender/District Office, as well as data provided by SBA's Office of Performance Systems Management and Office of Credit Risk Management, to provide a recommendation to SBA's Office of Capital Access (OCA). SBA's Administrator will make the final award decision based on, but not restricted to, the recommendation of the SBA's Office of Capital Access.

Small Business Investment Company of the Year

Small Business Investment Company of the Year Awards are presented to the Small Business Investment Company (SBIC), licensed pursuant to Section 301 of the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, that has used the SBA Debenture program to enhance access to capital for America's small business.

Who is eligible to be nominated for this award?

Only SBIC funds that have at least three years of operating history, are in good financial and regulatory standing, and have submitted their latest required annual Form 468 will be considered for the award. Portfolio entities are not eligible. More than one SBIC may be selected for the award.

Who may submit nominations for this award?

SBA will solicit nominations from the SBIC community, including portfolio companies and service providers, although anyone may submit nominations. SBA employees cannot submit nominations on behalf of the nominee.

Where are the nominations to be sent?

Nominations must be submitted by email to SBIC@sba.gov.

What is the deadline for nominations?

All nominations for the SBIC of the Year must be emailed no later than 3:00pm ET on January, 5, 2016.

What information must the nomination package contain?

Incomplete nomination packages will not be considered.

All evaluation/selection criteria must be specifically addressed. A complete nomination package will also include:

- 1) A completed background form (SBA Form 3300, Award Nominee Background Form) which is available through SBA district offices and online nominations portal.
- 2) A completed nomination form (SBA Form 3314, Small Business Investment Company of the Year) which is available through SBA district offices and the online nominations portal;
- 3) An original 8" x 10" or 5" x 7" photo of the nominated Lender or a digital photo – at least 300 dpi is required; photocopies are not acceptable;
- 4) Any other supporting documentation deemed significant by the nominator, including news clips, letters of recommendation, nomination letter (if not self-nominated) and other 35 evidence of the appropriateness of the nomination (supporting documentation must not exceed 10 pages). Videos will not be considered.

What are the evaluation/selection criteria for this award?

The selection will be based on the fund's overall performance, not just relative to other SBICs but the broader industry within the lower middle market; including:

- Demonstrated commitment to supporting the growth and expansion of small businesses, including but not necessarily limited to job creation and retention, penetration in underserved markets, and commitment to communities served.
- Commitment not just to financial return on investment, but to public focus and wellbeing. Although the entire body of work of the SBIC will be considered, this might also be demonstrated by a specific achievement reflecting positively upon the program and the Agency.
- The SBIC managers should describe how the fund's participation directly added value to a small concern. For example, has the SBIC been able to attract other sources of capital with which to partner in order to provide a small concern additional equity, senior debt or subordinated debt and thus more financing capacity? Or, has the SBIC contributed as a board member in a manner that helped a small concern come up with new products or processes?
- Positive working relationship with SBA and a clean compliance record.
- Although multiple fund history is not a requirement, a commitment to small businesses by the fund managers over an extended period can be advantageous in the process.
- Quantitative criteria:
  - Fund performance
  - Longevity (in the SBIC Program)
  - Size (by private capital commitment)
  - Amount invested
  - Number of companies financed
  - Number of jobs sustained and created
- Qualitative criteria:
  - Fit with the SBA mission
  - Community involvement
  - Service to underserved markets

What are the selection procedures for this award?

The winning SBIC(s) will be chosen by the SBA Administrator based on, but not restricted to, the recommendations of a panel of senior employees within the SBA Investment Division based upon the criteria listed below and will include input from the appropriate analyst within the Office of SBIC Operations.
