

Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Roundtable

A Conversation with America's Small Business Ombudsman

Thursday, July 23, 2015 – 9:30 to 11:00 a.m. MDT | Great Falls, MT

Concerned about a level regulatory playing field for your small business?

Join other Montana small business owners for this unique opportunity to share your concerns directly with the National Ombudsman for Small Business, Brian Castro.

- Learn how the Office of the National Ombudsman can help your small businesses save time and money in resolving difficult regulatory compliance and enforcement issues.
- Join other Montana small business owners to voice your ideas on federal regulatory challenges facing your business.

At the Roundtable you'll also be able to:

- Provide real-time input on regulatory enforcement fairness issues impacting your small business.
- Learn more about resources and assistance through the Small Business Administration (SBA) and the National Ombudsman.
- Engage federal officials on ways the government can best support small business success.
- Meet local SBA leaders, resource partners, state officials and John Hart, Regional Advocate for Montana.

The National Ombudsman promotes a level playing field for small businesses by working directly with federal regulators to facilitate practical and timely resolutions of regulatory fairness matters. The Office of the National Ombudsman, part of the U.S. Small Business Administration, provides small businesses a neutral and confidential way to report and help resolve federal regulatory problems, including repetitive inspections, excessive enforcement actions, and disproportionate fines.

To learn more about the National Ombudsman, visit www.sba.gov/ombudsman or call 888-REG-FAIR.

SBA's programs and services are provided to the public on a nondiscriminatory basis. Reasonable arrangements for persons with disabilities will be made when requested one week in advance. Contact: Email Crystal Baker at crystal.baker@sba.gov.
