Free Small Business Assistance Fair Coming to Jacksonville June 3rd

JAXSMALLBIZHELP.ORG Kicks Off With Offering Assistance to Jacksonville's Small Businesses

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.- Aspiring or existing entrepreneurs are invited to participate in a FREE Small Business Assistance Fair on Thursday, June 3rd from 10:30 am to 1:30 pm at the Beaver Street Enterprise Center located at 1225 West Beaver Street in Jacksonville, Florida.

Representatives from over 20 local organizations that assist small businesses will be available to counsel and educate small business owners or potential owners. Small Business owners can discuss many topics at this event including: government contracting, small business networking, obtaining a loan, how to start a small business, how to benefit from Chambers of Commerce, IRS tips, finding new employees, and much more!

JAXSMALLBIZHELP.ORG represents government and non-profit organizations that assist small businesses with the resources they need to succeed. For a complete listing of JAXSMALLBIZHELP.ORG organizations, please visit www.jaxsmallbizhelp.org.

Registration is not required for this event and the event is open to the public.

The Free Small Business Assistance Fair begins immediately after the Bagels and Bankers program, which runs from 8:30 am to 10:30 am. A panel of lending experts will be available at this event to assist in any financing questions for small business owners. For more information or to register, please visit www.sbdc.unf.edu.

This event is open to the media. Please coordinate with Lola Kress, (904) 443-1933 or lola.kress@sba.gov
