

SBA DISASTER ASSISTANCE PROGRAM SBA FORM 1366 BORROWER'S PROGRESS CERTIFICATION

1. This form is to be used by SBA's disaster loan borrowers to account for expenditures to repair or replace your disaster damaged property. Use this form when you are ready to request a subsequent disbursement.
2. Under "Accounting of Loan Funds Spent" list how you spent the last disbursement. Attach photocopies of receipts, for items exceeding $1,000.00, as instructed.
3. Under "Listing of Definite Commitments" list items you have purchased or contracted for but have not yet paid. Attach copies of the invoices or contracts as instructed.
4. Attach a short note requesting a subsequent disbursement. Explain how much you need, when you need it and what it will be used for.
5. By signing this form, you will certify, among other things, that:
 - the funds from this loan have been and will be used in accordance with the Use of Loan Proceeds and Compensation from Other Sources paragraph of the Loan Authorization and Agreement,
 - that there has been no adverse change in your financial conditions since application,
 - that you have used all additional funds from other sources,
 - that you have not received or requested additional funds from other sources without making SBA aware, and
 - that you will return any unused loan funds to SBA.

Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. § 552a)

SBA collects this information to verify use of loan proceeds and so that borrowers may provide certifications that are required before additional funds can be disbursed. Disclosures of name and other personal identifiers are required for a benefit, as SBA requires an individual seeking assistance from SBA to provide it with sufficient information for it to make an eligibility and credit decision. In making loans pursuant to Section 7(b) of the Small Business Act, SBA is required to have reasonable assurance that the loan is of sound value and will be repaid or that it is in the best interest of the Government to grant the assistance requested. For these purposes, you are asked to provide your name and loan number so that SBA can assure itself that loan proceeds are being properly used and determine whether additional funds can be disbursed.

Any person can request to see or get copies of any personal information that SBA has in its files. Information that is retrieved by individual identifiers, such as name or social security number is protected under the Privacy Act (PA) and maintained by SBA in PA System of Record, SBA 20 – Disaster Loan Case Files. Requests for information about another party that is maintained in such a system may be denied unless SBA has the written permission of the individual to release the information to the requestor; or unless the information is subject to disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act, or one or more of the routine uses listed in SBA System of Record - 20 .

ACCOUNTING OF LOAN FUNDS SPENT

List all funds spent to repair or replace disaster-damaged property as follows:

1. Please provide a copy of each individual invoice/receipt over $1,000, enter it on a separate line below and indicate on the invoice/receipt how it was paid (check #, credit card, cash, etc.) or copies of cancelled checks, and/or paid receipts, etc. Photocopies are acceptable.
2. Any invoices/receipts less than $1,000 may be grouped together and entered on a separate line – do not submit these individual receipts. For example, multiple receipts totaling $850 for personal property can be grouped together or multiple receipts totaling $1,500 for building materials can be grouped together, etc.)
3. After 100% of the outside funds are injected into the repair project and 80% of the SBA funds disbursed to date have been spent, additional SBA funds can be requested.
