

2013 Small Business Person of the Year Award

SBA will make Small Business Person of the Year awards at the district level (in multi-district states), the State level (from each of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands and Guam) and the National level. The National Small Business Person of the Year is selected from the State winners.

Who is eligible to be nominated for this award?

Any individual who owns and operates or who bears principal responsibility for operating a small business may be nominated. Partners who jointly own and operate a small business may be nominated as a “team,” so long as the number of individuals in the team nomination does not exceed four. A nominee for Small Business Person of the Year must own or operate a business defined as “small” under the applicable SBA size standards. Individuals who have received the Small Business Person Award at the State level within the past five years are not eligible. Nominees must also be residents of the United States or its territories and will be subject to background checks. Small businesses owned and operated by nominees must comply with federal civil rights laws. While receipt of SBA assistance is not required, it is preferred. Consult your nearest SBA district office if you have questions.

Who may submit nominations for this award?

Any individual or organization dedicated to the support of the small business community in the United States, including, but not limited to, trade and professional associations and business organizations, may submit nominations for the Small Business Person of the Year award

Where are the nominations to be sent?

Nominations must be submitted in one of two ways:

1. Nominations may be submitted to the U.S. Small Business Administration district office in the state or territory where the nominee is located (See pages 2 and 3 of this document for NORTH CAROLINA submissions) Nominations may be submitted via the online nominations portal on www.sba.gov (information to be disseminated on or before Nov. 1, 2012).

What is the deadline for nominations?

All nominations for Small Business Person of the Year must be postmarked or hand delivered to the SBA District Office no later than January 3, 2013.
