North Central West Virginia Offers Two Small Business Training Opportunities Thursday, February 18

CLARKSBURG, WEST VIRGINIA — The U.S. Small Business Administration’s West Virginia District Office participates in two small business training opportunities in North Central West Virginia Thursday, February 18, 2016.

Bridgeport – Show Me the Money!

There are options when it comes to funding your new or growing small business. Aspiring entrepreneurs looking for sources of financing can join the City of Bridgeport and SBA’s West Virginia District Office of the U.S. Small Business Administration for a “Show Me the Money” workshop Thursday, February 18, 2016 at 11:30 a.m. at the Bridgeport City Municipal Building.

The workshop features: Rick Haney, SBA lender relations specialist and Tim James, loan officer of The First Microloan of WV. Register for the free event by emailing Andrea Kerr at akerr@bridgeportwv.com.

Fairmont - Are You Making the Biggest Mistakes in Social Media Marketing?

Social media is constantly changing and evolving. Keep up with the new trends by joining the U.S. Small Business Administration WV District Office Thursday, February 18, 2016 at 11:45 a.m. as Luke Nesler, Co-Founder of IMPAKT Marketing explains, demos, and shares information to highlight the newest social media developments.

During the training Nesler reviews different ways to market your business on Facebook, including newly released Facebook Live, to ensure you are maximizing ROI and company time. The event is hosted by the High Technology Foundation at Robert H. Mollohan Research Center. Register for the event by emailing Stephanie Pethtel at spethtel@wvhtf.org. There is a fee to cover the cost of lunch.
