

4/3/2017 10:41 AM

2017 Small Business Media Advocate

Dana Barrett is a TV & radio personality, speaker, business commentator and host of The Dana Barrett Show, airing weekdays at 9 a.m. on biz1190 AM WAFS in Atlanta. Her television credits include hosting Atlanta Tech Edge on Atlanta's NBC affiliate, and Tech'd Out TV for Cox Communications, as well as playing a reporter in both TV and feature films!

She uses her show and talents to not only entertain, but also to educate the community on the successes and struggles of the small business community. Dana is active in the community as an emcee for business, technology and non-profit events and is the official spokesperson for TurningPoint Breast Cancer Rehabilitation.

Before moving to radio and television, Dana was both an entrepreneur and a corporate executive, working in a variety of industries including publishing, media, and IT.