10. I have a business partner, but he/she does not want to be included on the COVID-19 EIDL application. Can I still apply?

All 20% or more owners are required to be included on the application and at least 81% ownership needs to be accounted for on the application in order to be considered.

11. What if I need more money than I've been approved for?

COVID-19 EIDLs can be modified by increasing the amount up to 6 months of working capital. An increase can be requested either before or after accepting the loan. If applicant is in urgent need of funds, accept the maximum loan amount offered and then request an increase by providing additional documentation.

If you were approved for a loan and would like to request an increase to the amount, send an email that states your need for an increase to the loan amount to pdcrecons@sba.gov with the word "INCREASE" in the subject line. Include any additional information that may assist us in considering an increase for your application. For example:

1. Your most recent Federal tax return for your business along with a signed IRS Form 4506-T
2. For updated financials (Gross Revenue, Cost of Goods Sold, cost of operation, or other sources of compensation), submit Form 3502.

13. I have multiple businesses. Can I submit multiple COVID-19 EIDL applications?

Yes, you can submit one application per eligible business. However, at least 81% ownership needs to be accounted for on the application.

14. I've been declined for COVID-19 EIDL. What could be the reasons for that decline?

Decline reasons are unique to the applicant. The most common reasons for a decline are:

- Unsatisfactory credit history. Because EIDL is a government loan, federal regulations require applicants to meet minimum credit standards to qualify.
- Unverifiable information. If an applicant does not respond within 7 days to requests for additional information from loan officers, their application may be declined. Request a reconsideration to reactivate your application.
- Ineligible non-US citizen status. Applicants must be US citizens, non-citizen nationals, or qualified aliens. Refer to SOP 50 30 9, Appendix 7 for further information.
- Business activity not eligible.
- Economic injury not substantiated. There are two possible reasons for this decline: 1) The economic injury is less than the amount received for the EIDL Advance; or 2) The information submitted does not indicate an economic injury.
- Character reasons. Applicants may be declined if they have been convicted of a felony in the past five years; or ever been engaged in the production or distribution of any product or service that has been determined to be obscene by a court of competent jurisdiction; those who are currently suspended or debarred from contracting with the federal government or receiving federal grants or loans; and/or those who are presently subject to an indictment, criminal information, arraignment, or other means by which formal criminal charges are brought in any jurisdiction.
- Failure to respond. If applicants do not respond to emails asking for additional information or to sign loan closing documents, the application will typically expire after 60 days.

15. Can I request a reconsideration if my COVID-19 EIDL application is declined?

Applicant has up to 6 months to request reconsideration. Send reconsideration requests to:

E-mail	pdcrecons@sba.gov
Mail	U.S. Small Business Administration Disaster Assistance Processing and Disbursement Center 14925 Kingsport Road Fort Worth, Texas 76155

Include any additional information that may assist us in your request. If the decline letter requested specific information or documentation for reconsideration, you must include those items.

Be sure to include:

- Business Name
- Borrower's Name
- Tax ID/EIN or SSN
- Application/Loan Number

The process will vary depending on reason for decline.

16. If I've already received a COVID-19 EIDL and I've been affected by civil unrest, can I ask for more funds?

If you are in an area that has a Disaster Declaration, which includes civil unrest and disasters such as flooding, storm damage, wildfires or earthquakes, you may be eligible for additional SBA Disaster Loans to cover damage to your home, personal possessions and/or business.

Check disasterloan.sba.gov to see if there is a disaster declaration for your area.

SBA's COVID-19 relief programs, such as the PPP and EIDL, are for economic impacts resulting from the coronavirus pandemic, and not for physical or economic disaster losses caused by civil unrest or other disasters.

17. I already have a PPP and COVID-19 EIDL and my business has not recovered yet from the impacts of the COVID shutdowns; would I qualify for another loan?

If your business received a PPP loan or EIDL assistance because of COVID-19, and even you have another SBA Disaster Loan from a previous disaster, you may still qualify for a new SBA disaster loan for losses resulting from a declared disaster in your community.

18. If I get another Disaster Loan due to civil unrest or a natural disaster, can I consolidate the new loan with my COVID-19 EIDL? Or can I use it to pay off the COVID-19 EIDL?

No. Each SBA Disaster Loan is a separate loan; they cannot be consolidated or used to pay off earlier loans.

If you qualify for another SBA disaster loan due to a different declared disaster in your area, the new loan must be used for the purposes listed in your loan closing documents, which may include working capital or physical damage repairs. It cannot be used to refinance or payoff existing SBA disaster loans from previous disaster events, including COVID-19.

Retain receipts and contracts for all loan funds spent for 3 years so you'll be able to document use of funds for each loan.

19. Given that my business has not yet recovered from COVID shutdowns, how will I handle repayment?

Payments for COVID-19 loans are deferred automatically for 1 year. Disaster loans that are already in repayment status for disasters that occurred before COVID-19 are deferred through December 2020. New disaster loans for civil unrest and other disasters are also automatically deferred for 1 year.

If you qualify for a new disaster loan, you can request that SBA extend the deferment of your other loan payments to help with the financial hardship.

20. How is the process for applying for a civil unrest or other disaster loan different from the COVID-EIDL process?

If your only experience with SBA Disaster Loans has been with the EIDL program for COVID-19, you'll find the process different for declared disasters such as civil unrest or other disasters.

- There are two assistance programs:

- Physical damage loans that cover repairs and replacement of physical assets damaged in a declared disaster that are not covered by insurance.

- Economic injury loans to cover small business operating expenses after a declared disaster.

- The application process is different:

- Apply at disasterloan.sba.gov

- Eligibility and loan requirements are different than the COVID-19 program, including collateral and insurance requirements. If secured, these loans may require a lien on your property and evidence of flood, hazard and/or windstorm insurance. Visit SBA.gov/Disaster for more information.
