Economic Injury Disaster Loan Assistance

Small business owners in all U.S. states, Washington D.C., and territories are currently eligible to apply for a long term low-interest loan due to Coronavirus (COVID-19).

The SBA's Economic Injury Disaster Loan program provides small businesses with working capital loans of up to $2 million that can provide vital economic support to small businesses to help overcome the temporary loss of revenue they are experiencing.

If you are applying for disaster assistance for another declaration, then please see the home owner's and renter's form here.

The U.S. Small Business Administration Economic Injury Disaster Loan provides immediate working capital to eligible applicants. For expedited loan application processing, the business must have been operating for at least one year prior to the disaster. Eligibility for this disaster loan must consider compensation from other sources to offset the economic injury. Other sources include but are not limited to: (1) grants or other reimbursement (including loans) from government agencies or private organizations, and (2) claims for civil liability against other individuals, organizations or governmental entities.
