The SBA is now offering low-interest, long-term federal disaster loans for working capital to organizations suffering substantial economic injury as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.

All Maryland small businesses are eligible to apply for these loans.
These Economic Injury Disaster Loans (EIDLs) are specifically available to the following organizations directly affected by the disaster:

- Small businesses within the SBA Size Standards (visit https://www.sba.gov/size)
- Small agricultural cooperatives & aquaculture businesses
- Private non-profit organizations (regardless of size)
What are some types of organizations that are ineligible to receive an Economic Injury Disaster Loan?

- Religious organizations
- Charitable organizations
- Gambling concerns (i.e., businesses that derive more than 1/3 of their annual gross revenue from legal gambling activities)

How much can I borrow?

• Eligible entities may qualify for loan amounts of up to $2 million.

• Interest rates on this disaster loan are 3.75% for small businesses and 2.75% for non-profit organizations.

• Terms of up to 30 years are available with the first payment due 12 months after funds are issued.
How can I use EIDL funds?

• These are working capital loans that may be used to pay fixed debts, payroll, accounts payable, and other bills that could have been paid had the disaster not occurred.

• Economic Injury Disaster Loans help entities stay afloat during the declared disaster, ready to “restart” their operations once circumstances allow.

• EIDLs are not meant for business expansion.
General Loan Approval Criteria

Credit History – Applicants must have a credit history acceptable to the SBA.

Repayment Ability – The SBA must determine that the applicant business has the ability to repay the Economic Injury Disaster Loan.

Eligibility – The applicant business must be physically located in a disaster-designated area and have suffered working capital losses due to the declared disaster.
What are the collateral requirements?

- Economic Injury Disaster Loans of over $25,000 require collateral.

- The SBA takes real estate as collateral when it is available.

- The SBA will not decline a loan for lack of collateral but requires borrowers to pledge what is available.

- Given the severity of the COVID-19 pandemic and its economic impacts, the SBA will make reasonable efforts to work with applicants toward a favorable decision.
