If you're one of those with the dream of owning your own business, this is an opportunity to get the information you need and get started.

You'll learn about your options and what it takes to get a loan. There will be a panel, featuring experts from several financing agencies, to offer advice on finding the option that best suits your business financing needs. Panel participants will include representatives from:

- WWBIC
- Small Business Administration (SBA)
- Wisconsin Housing & Economic Development Authority (WHEDA)
