How are winners selected?

Each award category includes evaluation criteria that judges use to determine the winners. Only completed nomination packages will be considered.

Who selects the winners?

Winners at any level will be selected by a panel of judges that may be comprised of both SBA employees and non-Federal employees. Non-federal employees serving as judges are vetted by the SBA and must sign a conflict of interest/non-disclosure certification. National winners are selected by the SBA Administrator based on, but not restricted to, the recommendations of the panel of judges of federal employees.

When will the winners be announced?

National Small Business Week is April 29-May 5, 2018. Winners will be recognized during the 15th Annual Salute to Small Business, South Carolina's major Small Business kick-off event on May 2, 2018.

What are the selection procedures?

All completed nominations meeting the eligibility requirements will be evaluated by a panel of both SBA and non-SBA judges. The judges will individually score each nomination based on the evaluation criteria below. Winning nominations will be those with the highest combined scores. All winners will be confirmed by the SBA South Carolina District Office.

When will nominees be notified and winners announced?

Nominees and nominators will be notified of their nomination's status around March 2019. Winners will be publicly announced in April 2019.

How will winners be recognized?

Winners will be honored during the 16th annual Salute to Small Business, South Carolina's major Small Business Week kick-off event, to be held in May 2019.

Do not forget to include the following in your completed nomination:
