

Calling All Veterans – Free Event

Small Business Administration Opportunities for Veterans

GTCC - Jamestown Campus

601 E. Main

Jamestown, NC 27282

November 5, 2015

10 a.m. – 12 p.m.

Want to start a business? Starting a business can be confusing, challenging and frustrating. Whether your business is new, established or you are cultivating the seed of a great idea, success depends on getting the assistance you need, when you need it.

Learn about the Small Business Administration resources to assist you through the different phases of development. The veteran's representative from the SBA will provide information to take the next step as an entrepreneur. In addition, a Veteran Business Owner will describe his experience in starting his business. You do not want to miss this opportunity.
