

RELEASE OF COLLATERAL

In order for the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) to consider your request for Partial or Full Release of Collateral, please provide the following required information as itemized below.

ATTENTION:

This requirements letter is not a commitment by the SBA. Any commitment made by the SBA will be provided separately in writing.

FOR HAFA REQUESTS, PLEASE USE THE OFFER IN COMPROMISE REQUIREMENTS LETTER

If loan is in servicing status, it must reflect current or be brought current before the SBA will process the request. Approval of any request may be conditioned on curing defaults and correcting any collateral deficiencies or issues with loan documents.

Once a complete package is received, the SBA will have a response to your request within 30 business days. Any incomplete packages are subject to delays and/or may be returned unprocessed. Additional documentation may be required for thorough analysis.

Please be advised that SBA will require "Monetary Consideration" to execute the Release of Collateral as pay down against the SBA loan balance. A pay down for consideration is not a regular instalment payments; however, the pay down will reduce your loan's principal balance. Regular monthly payments are not automatically re-amortized; you must qualify for payment reduction. If the sale of the property does not pay the loan in full, Borrower/Guarantor will not receive any proceeds from the transaction.

If SBA is in FIRST lien position, NET SALES proceeds must be remitted to the SBA as a principal reduction. This is to include any and all earnest money from Buyer to Seller. Failure to remit Net Sale Proceeds and Earnest money (if any) as instructed may cause the request for Release of Collateral to be declined.

All collateral documents now in place will remain in effect and all Borrowers/Guarantors will remain legally obligated under the existing terms of the Note, until such Note is paid in full.

Note: If SBA is in the process of foreclosing on the real estate used to secure your SBA loan, you must contact the SBA employee in the SBA's National Disaster Loan Resolution Center (NDLRC) named in your foreclosure letter to discuss this matter. As to non-bankrupt borrowers/guarantors in foreclosure, collection efforts currently in process will continue until SBA's NDLRC receives the required documentation and approves your request for assistance in writing. There will be no refunds of any offset(s) by the U.S. Department of Treasury during this period.
